InterSolutions Continues Support of Capitol Hill Community with Sponsorship of Capitol Hill Classic 10K Run

WASHINGTON – InterSolutions Inc., a job training and placement company for the property management industry based in Capitol Hill, this weekend continued its ongoing support of the community through sponsorship of the 2007 Capitol Hill Classic 10K race to benefit the Capitol Hill Cluster School. For the third consecutive year, InterSolutions was a presenting sponsor of the event and also sponsored the race's largest team. The company was recognized by the event's organizers for its generosity during a post-race ceremony.

"We are proud to continue our support of the Capitol Hill community through our involvement in the Capitol Hill Classic," said John Wagithuku, chief executive officer of InterSolutions. "As a business which is headquartered in the Capitol Hill neighborhood, we are committed to supporting the community, not only with the creation of jobs for its residents, but also through initiatives which foster the development of its youth and the improvement of the community at large."

InterSolutions has been a leader in charitable contributions to the Capitol Hill neighborhood since its founding in 1997, regularly donating to area schools and sponsoring and supporting community causes and events.

More than 3,000 runners participated in the 2007 Capitol Hill Classic along with hundreds of neighbors, children and families who came out to show their support. The goal of this year's race was to raise $50,000 to support the Capitol Hill Cluster School, a Washington public school serving approximately 1,000 children ranging from preschool through eighth grade.
